

Services - Family

We manage over 2 million family legal expenses policies.

“Arc Legal has provided us with a comprehensive product and claims service that ensures focused customer delivery.”

Nick Tsimekis, Ancillary Product Sales Manager – AXA Personal Lines

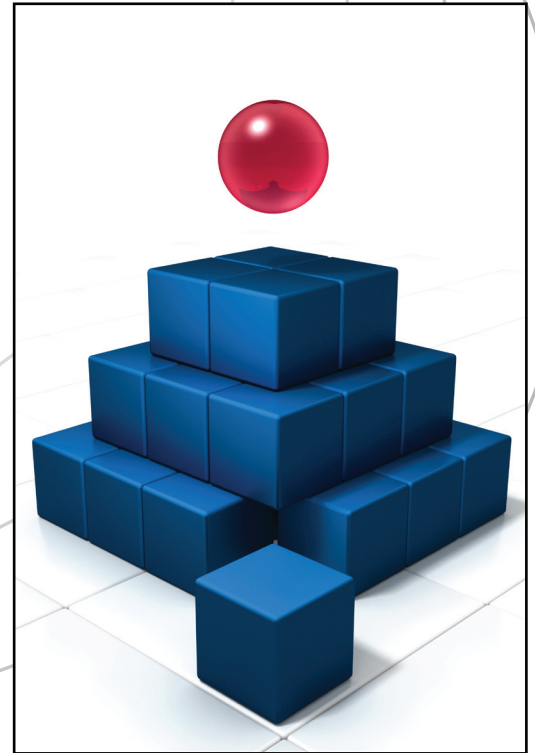

Arc Legal Assistance provides family legal protection to cover the costs of litigation that household members may face.

Tailoring services to the needs of our clients' customers is a key element of our function. The typical areas of cover we provide are:-

- Pursuit of claims against employers
- Contract claims against a person or organisation providing defective goods or services
- Personal injury claims against the responsible person or organisation
- Actions for nuisance or trespass or physical damage relating to the home
- Defence for contract claims brought by a person to whom private goods have been sold
- Defence of HM Revenue and Customs Enquiries
- Legal helpline advice, available 24/7
- Identity Theft - including contacting relevant organisations to notify them that a fraud has been perpetrated and representation in any civil proceedings which may arise

In addition to insured services, we can also offer:-

- Total Legal services, which provides discounted will writing, conveyancing and family law support
- Secondary Homes – we can extend the property cover to include second homes in the UK, Spain, Portugal and the Republic of Ireland
- Territorial Limits – we can extend cover to be worldwide
